ORDER 12 PERCENT REDUCTION IN RAIL WAGES

75 ARE KILLED IN TULSA RACE RIOTS

ONE-MAN CARS ON NORTH SIDE LINE ARE ASKED

Proposed Change Would Represent an Annual Saving of $23,000 to Company, Say Local Officials

WOULD REMOVE ONE CAR FROM SOUTH SIDE ALSO

Refusal of Proposed Changes Would Necessitate Further Increase in Fare

That the city railway company could operate in La Crosse at a saving of $23,000 annually if permitted to install one-man cars on the north side and Sixteenth street line in place of those used at the present time was the assertion of representatives of the company at a meeting with the public utilities committee of the common council held at the city hall Tuesday night.

In addition to the request for the installation of one man cars on the north side line, the company asked permission to remove one car from the south side and Twenty-third street line and subsequently running the cars on a twelve-minute headway schedule.

While the public utility was not so insistent in this respect, it also asks for the removal of one car from the Myrick park line. The committee on public utilities met with E. M. Howland general manager of the Wisconsin Railway Light and Power company, and C. L. Hedges, city superintendent, who submitted the facts in connection with the requests.

It was announced by the representatives of the company that with these adjustments in order, the utility would be able to continue to operate without further increase in fare. In the event of the refusal of the proposed changes it was stated that the company would be forced to ask a ten cent cash fare with a similar raise in the commuter's strip ticket.

The matter of the construction of the Eleventh and Sixteenth street lines, and the abandonment of the Thirteenth street tracks was brought up but no action was taken regarding the matter.

STRAWBERRIES ARE HERE IN ABUNDANCE FROM FRENCH ISLAND

"Say," ejaculated Charles McInnes, grocer, Mill and Cass streets, this morning, "Say don't you fellows know that French Island is on the map."

As he was speaking he was arranging boxes of red, luscious-looking strawberries on a counter.

"Just look at these strawberries. They came from French Island Tuesday. You talk about La Crescent and Dresbach having such nice berries; how about these?"

The strawberry crop on the farms of such farmers as Jolivette and others promises to be one of the best in recent years.

FAIRBANKS DENIES THAT THE STORK IS HOVERING AROUND

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—"The only bird I have seen hovering around here is an ostrich that was given us last Christmas—and that is for sale cheap," Douglas Fairbanks declared today in denying published reports that his wife, Mary Pickford Fairbanks, is preparing for a visit from the stork.

"There is absolutely no truth in the report," continued Fairbanks. "If such a wonderful thing were true we would have no reason to deny it."

Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., Millionaire Reporter, Here On Trail-Blazing Motor Tour

CORNELIUS VANDERBILT, Jr., scion of the house of Vanderbilt, New York, war veteran, newspaper reporter and automobilist, spent eighteen hours in La Crosse, leaving at noon today for Seattle. Mr. Vanderbilt is blazing a trail from New York to Seattle for the National Parks Highway commission of Washington, D. C. Also he will open a Pacific Northwest news bureau for the New York times, the paper he reports for in New York.

CORNELIUS VANDERBILT, JR.

Mr. Vanderbilt is accompanied by his wife, her sister, Miss Minnies Littleton—one of the Littletons of Tennessee—and John W. Brodie of the National Parks Highway commission. The Vanderbilt French poodle also is making the overland trip. The tourists arrived at the Stoddard hotel Wednesday night in time for dinner, then took in a movie and retired early. This morning the big roomy Packard was carefully groomed and cleaned and prepared for the run to Minneapolis. Mr. Vanderbilt left New York on May 21. The tourists spent seventy-one hours actual motoring time, coming west by way of Washington, Wheeling, West Virginia, Columbus, Ohio and Chicago. They came to this city from Madison. Mr. Vanderbilt and Mr. Brodie alternate at driving.

Unassuming, dressed in serviceable grey-green clothing, pongee silk shirt and soft collar, Mr. Vanderbilt scarcely resembles what one might suppose an heir to millions of dollars would look like. He said they had enjoyed the trip from the east immensely, that the roads for the most part were in good condition and the weather ideal. He isn't concerned much with money matters. Newspaper work occupies most of his thoughts. He thinks it is the most fascinating business in the world.

He "Scooped" the World

"Say, you know I scooped the world on the Prince of Wales' visit to the United States," he declared and his eyes danced. "I got the first interview obtained in the United States. I located the prince at Lake Geneva, I disguised myself as a trapper, found the prince in the woods near the lake and interviewed him. It was some story. I beat all the other New York reporters to it."

Mr. Vanderbilt plans to visit Strathcona park, north of Vancouver in British Columbia. It will be the only national park in either the United States or Canada that he will visit. The main object of the motor trip is to report on the roads and routes from coast to coast. He will remain in Seattle until November 1, as head of the Times news bureau. After that he probably will return to New York. "Guess I will be taking assignments from the city editor like the rest of the fellows, next fall," was the way he described his future prospects after he had completed the present assignment.

Mr. Brodie is a famous athlete, having held the cross country running championship for a number of years. Mrs. Vanderbilt is as much interested in newspaper work as her husband and gets as much excited as the millionaire-reporter does when he gets an assignment that promises something exciting.

According to Manager Spencer of the Stoddard, Mr. Vanderbilt is the most unassuming, democratic young millionaire that he ever saw. It was soon known all over the hotel that "a Vanderbilt" was stopping there. But aside from the fact that his name appeared on the register, Mr. Vanderbilt remained completely and absolutely unobtrusive.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Five bandits in a large touring car held up two messengers of the Millers and Traders bank here shortly after 9 a. m. Wednesday and escaped with $16,000 in currency. The bank is located just across the street from police headquarters.

SELMER SIMONSON LAID TO REST IN CEMETERY HERE

Body is Borne to Grave by Comrades Who Were With Him When Wounded

BODY ARRIVED HERE SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Services Held From Our Savior's Church Here

The remains of Corporal Selmer J. Simonson, who died of wounds received in action in the Argonne, were laid to rest in Oak Grove cemetery Tuesday afternoon. The body was borne to the grave by comrades who were within a few feet of him when he was wounded.

The body arrived in La Crosse on Saturday and was taken to the mortuary of Tetley, Slotten & Dahl. It remained there until the hour for the funeral Tuesday when it was taken to Our Saviour's church, Sixth and Division streets, where the services were held, under the auspices of the Roy L. Vingers post, American Legion.

The Rev. H. G. Magelssen, pastor of the church, officiated at the services. He read a letter from a Y. M. C. A. secretary who was at Simonson's bedside when he died. The soldier's last words were for his father and mother. The pall-bearers were Ambrose Coughlin, Earl Nelson, Hubert Staats, George Hanson, Herbert Hall and J. Kolbo.

Most of the pall-bearers and several members of the firing squad, that fired the last salute over the grave at Oak Grove cemetery, were within a few feet of Simonson when he was wounded on October 5, 1918. Simonson was enlisted in old Company M, Third regiment, W. N. G. This company later became Company C, 121st Machine Gun battalion. They had been in the Argonne four days, under intense fire and fighting every minute of the time. The battalion had been advancing when they were halted because of the heavy German barrage and had sought shelter on the side of a hill to await the silencing of the German guns by the American batteries.

At the same time Simonson was wounded a stretcher was being carried past the spot where he was resting. One of the stretcher bearers had a foot shot off. Simonson's comrades placed him on the stretcher and started for the rear. Just as the stretcher was raised to the shoulders of the men, Simonson raised his head, saluted his comrades and said: "Well, goodbye boys." More than three years later these same "boys" carried Simonson's body to its final resting place in the cemetery in La Crosse.

Simonson lived with his parents on a farm near Victory, when war broke out. Since then his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simonson have moved to La Crosse and now make their home at 2127 Market street.

Judge Hunt Is Complainant In Big Law Suit

CHICAGO, Ill.—The fight to enjoin William Hale Thompson, mayor, and others of the city administration from paying more than $1,000,000 in fees to building experts, was carried to the federal courts Wednesday with the filing of a bill by C. W. Hunt, justice of the peace of La Crosse, Wis., as a Chicago taxpayer.

The plaintiff is represented by the same law firm that is conducting a similar suit for the Chicago Tribune. The bill filed Wednesday alleges that the mayor and other officials have conspired to defraud the city of millions of dollars through the payment of expert fees, the sums in reality, according to the bill, being used for the promotion of the city hall machine.

Among other particulars the bills alleged that the men named have "diverted the moneys obtained by the sale of City Beautiful bonds to unlawful and illegal purposes."

City's Black Zone Is Put To the Torch

TULSA, Okla.—Martial law was declared in effect in this city and Tulsa county about noon Wednesday by state Adjutant General C. F. Barrett following receipt of orders from Governor Robertson directing that the military take over the situation arising from a race clash that broke out Tuesday night and continued throughout the night and early Wednesday. It is estimated that 6 whites and 50 negroes have been killed in the fighting with scores wounded.

Fires continued to rage all morning in the negro section but at 11:30 it was believed that the white residence districts which were imperiled would escape.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—Seventy-five persons, whites and negroes, have been killed in the race outbreak in Tulsa, according to a telephone message to Governor Robertson here Wednesday from the chief of Police at Tulsa.

Negro Quarter Burning

TULSA, Okla.—Nearly ten square blocks of the south side of the negro section of Tulsa, where an armed conflict has been in progress between white men and negroes since early Tuesday night resulting in the reported death list of six whites and fifty negroes and a rapidly increasing list of wounded, were in flames today. The fire was reported spreading and threatened to wipe out a white residence section in the Standpipe and Sunset Hill additions.

State troops under command of Adjutant General Barrett arrived at 10 o'clock to take charge of the situation, augmenting some local units of guardsmen who were called out last night. At this time there were reports of sporadic shooting and the situation seemed to be easing.

Detachments of guardsmen were scattered throughout the city prepared to meet all emergencies with machine guns ready for action. Guards surrounded the armory while others assisted in rounding up the negroes and segregating them in the jail, convention hall, baseball park and other places which had been turned into prison camps.

Negro Attacked Girl

The trouble is reported to have been the result of the arrest late Tuesday of Dick Rowland, negro, for an alleged assault on an orphan girl in an elevator. The negro was spirited away from the county jail soon after 2 o'clock in the morning by deputies from the office of Sheriff McCullough.

Early Tuesday evening armed negroes appeared in the principal streets headed for the county court house in the upper story of which is the jail. Shortly after about 200 negroes had surrounded the building, armed white men began to appear.

The first attempts to fire the negro section were made about 1:30 o'clock in the morning, when white men openly threatened to destroy the locality. Two houses at Archer and Boston streets, used by more than fifty negroes as a garrison, were set afire at that time and an alarm was turned in. Efforts of the fire department to lay hose were stopped by a crowd of armed white men and the department returned to its station.

Surround Black Section

The attempt to lay the negro quarter in ashes was resumed at 6:40 o'clock when almost simultaneously fire began to burst forth from the doors and windows of frame shacks along Archer street. Soon dense clouds of black smoke enveloped the locality. Under cover of the smoke screen armed men in motor cars and afoot threw a cordon about the place where the negroes were stationed and occasional shots gave warning that the conflict still waged.

As the fire enveloped the houses, negroes were seen to dart out from flaming doorways with upraised hands, shouting "Don't shoot." As they dashed through the smoke they were ordered to surrender and quickly were removed to the prison camps.

The first known shot was fired soon after dark Tuesday night when a police officer attempted to disarm a negro. According to the officer the negro resisted and was shot dead. A white man was killed shortly afterward at the court house by a party of whites who mistook him for a negro.

Citizens Care For Refugees

The negroes assembled as refugees and prisoners were being cared for by civic organizations and private citizens who volunteered for the work. Ice water and sandwiches were being served and the wounded or sick were receiving medical attention.

Throughout the night long lines of negroes streamed westward along the streets leading to convention hall. Many wore their night-clothes and ran to safety. In their bare feet. Their sunken eyes told of a sleepless night

FOUR HUNDRED MILLION CUT FROM PAYROLL

Ruling, Effective July First, Wipes Out Two-Thirds of Increase Granted Workers a Year Ago

UNION LEADERS WITHHOLD COMMENT UPON DECISION

Meet July 1 to Discuss Award; Rail Presidents Not Satisfied

CHICAGO, Ill.—Approximately two-thirds of the wage increase granted railroad employes last July by the railroad labor board was ordered deducted beginning July 1 in the board's decision announced Wednesday. From the increase last year of $600,000,000 a year in salaries of railroad labor, nearly $400,000,000 will be cut.

In the case of the general class of maintenance of way laborers the entire increase of 8½ cents an hour was withdrawn, while in others of the classes having the larger number of employes, the cuts ranged from 13 to 8 and 10 to 6 cents an hour as compared with the award of last July. Although the wage cuts are to apply only on the 104 roads which had filed petitions for the decreases, the board's announcement said application of other roads would cause the same reductions. The decreases, it is estimated, eventually will affect two million men. The general average decrease is placed at 12 per cent as compared with an average of 21 per cent increase granted last July.

Unions Withhold Comment

Union leaders withheld comment on the board's decision, but it had been freely stated at sessions of the railway employes' leaders here during the board's hearings that cuts of ten to twelve per cent would meet little opposition.

Leaders of the four big railroad brotherhoods have called a meeting here for July 1 to discuss the award.

H. E. Byram, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul; and C. M. Felton, president of the Chicago Great Western, declared that the reductions granted were "not sufficient to meet the demands of the situation."

Point Out Wage Jump

In a supplemental memorandum the board points out that during government control the wages of railway employes were increased from an average of $78 a month in December, 1917, to $116 in January, 1920, and to $141 by the increase of last July. About ten per cent of the railway employes, chiefly those unskilled, the board said, had received increases approximating 100 per cent, while the

Surtax on Incomes Constitutional Declares Ruling on Measure

SEE OPPOSITION TO SURTAX FEATURE IN THE SENATE

Indications also Seen that Blaine May Veto the Bill

MADISON, Wis.—Constitutionality of the proposed surtax on incomes as the method for raising the $1,000,000 needed annually to finance the proposed teachers' retirement and pension fund law, is upheld in an opinion of Attorney General William Morgan given Tuesday.

The attorney general over-ruled the contention put forward that a surtax would establish double taxation and violate the uniformity rule, through the fact that Milwaukee already maintained its own retirement fund and would benefit in no way from the state law.

"The uniformity rule of the constitution with reference to property taxes does not apply to income taxes," the attorney general holds. "In addition the uniformity rule applies only to the levy and assessment of taxes and not to their distribution after collection.

"The fact that the city of Milwaukee is already supporting a teachers' pension system is not at all conclusive upon the constitutional question, and is a matter solely for legislators to consider in determining what is a just distribution of the burden."

The retirement fund bill is not yet safely passed, Assemblyman Dahl, administration spokesman, intimated to the assembly Tuesday night in discussing the Caldwell bill to liquidate the present retirement fund.

"We have passed the measure with the surtax provision," Dahl declared, "but have no guarantee that the senate will agree to our amendment. Then there are other things which might happen to the bill. I think we had better keep the Caldwell bill alive until the matter is definitely settled."

Some of the assemblymen interpreted this to mean that the governor might veto the retirement fund bill, although he has given no inkling as to his probable attitude. He is known to be opposed to additional mill taxes in any form this session, but as the measure now stands the mill tax feature has been eliminated.

Caldwell's substitute bill was finally placed upon the table after the assembly had changed its mind several times within five minutes.

Assembly Dahl's bill making it compulsory for high schools to provide half time courses for all pupils under eighteen years of age, was given final passage by the assembly. Should this bill be approved by the senate it would mean an entire reorganization of the high school courses of the state, educators say. The age of compulsory school attendance was raised from 17 to 18 years.

Joyce after the finance committee had cut down the request for $75,000 for three years for a new normal school at Rhinelander, to $4,000 for one year, the assembly killed the bill. The vote was an expression of policy that nothing in the nature of a new building program should be authorized at this session.

HERE is a puzzle picture that will give you more fun than anything you have seen in a long time—and at the same time give you a chance to win a liberal cash prize.

The way to solve the puzzle is to find the list of visible objects or articles in the picture, the names of which start with the letter "P". At a glance you will notice a number of them—then you will start studying the picture—AND THEN THE FUN WILL BEGIN.

TWENTY CASH PRIZES will be awarded to the senders of the twenty best solutions of the puzzle picture. The solution having the nearest correct list of names will be awarded first prize, the second nearest list, second prize, etc. (See list of prizes.)

You will be amazed to find how large a list you can get after a few minutes of study. Sit down and try it—then send in your list. No reason why you shouldn't have one of the cash prizes.

The puzzle contest is open to anyone and IT COSTS NOTHING TO ENTER IT. It is not a subscription contest and merely by sending in a solution you can win one of the twenty cash prizes. BUT, LISTEN—

YOU CAN WIN $1,000.00

Now—if the judges should decide that you're the winning list you will be awarded the first cash prize of $25.00. But, if you have sent in one subscription to either the Morning, Evening or Sunday Sentinel, you will be eligible for the increased cash prize and instead of $25.00 you will receive $400.00.

BUT THAT ISN'T ALL: If your solution is the first winner and you have sent in two subscriptions, you are eligible for the grand prize and will receive $1,000.00.

And for every one of the twenty cash prizes there are the increased amounts that may be won in the same manner. (See prize list.)

Remember it takes but two subscriptions to make your solution eligible for the $1,000.00—and TWO is absolutely the limit. Two subscriptions can be gotten with very little work and they will increase the value of your solution forty times.

Where one subscription is sent in it may be either a new subscriber or a renewal. When two are sent, however, one of them, at least, must be a new subscriber. If you are not a subscriber your own subscription will count as a new one; if you are a Sentinel subscriber a renewal of your own subscription will count as a renewal. (See Rule 12.)

Extra copies of Puzzle Picture may be had on request.

READ AND FOLLOW THESE RULES:

1. Any person may enter the contest with the exception of employes of The Sentinel company and members of their families.

2. There is no entrance fee in connection with the contest and any person may send in a solution absolutely free. All solutions will be given equal consideration.

3. Lists of words should be written on one side of the paper only and each word should be numbered. Each sheet of a contestant's solution should bear the contestant's name and address written plainly in the upper left hand corner. Any communication to the contest manager should be written on a separate piece of paper and not on the same sheets as the solution.

4. All words submitted in your solutions must be good modern English. The following will be barred: (a) proper names; (b) obsolete, rustic, provincial, slang or colloquial words; (c) compound words.

5. Where more than one word starting with the letter "p" applies to the same article or object only one of the original words may be used for this object. When the plural of a given word is used the singular can not be used and when the singular is used the plural can not be used.

6. Where words of the same spelling but of different meanings apply to different objects in the picture the word can be used only once.

7. The nearest correct list of words will be awarded first prize, the next nearest, second prize and so on down the list. Each word of a contestant's list must apply to some object or article in the picture that is plainly in order to have it count. If words are sent in describing objects that are not in the picture, or that, in the judges' opinion, do not apply to objects in the picture, the contestant will be penalized for having them on his list.

8. All solutions to the puzzle picture must be mailed by midnight on Saturday, June 18. One week longer will be allowed contestants to send in subscriptions making them eligible for the increased cash prizes. Subscriptions making the contestant eligible for the increased cash prizes, must be mailed, therefore, by midnight on Saturday, June 25. No new contestants may enter the contest or no list of words may be changed or revised, however, during this week between June 18 and June 25.

9. A committee of judges consisting of well known men, in no way connected with The Sentinel, will go over the solutions and decide on the winners. Announcement of the winners will be made immediately after the judges make their decision and the prizes awarded. Persons who enter the contest agree to accept the ruling of these judges as final.

10. If contestants are tied for any one of the twenty prizes offered, each tied contestant will be awarded the designated prize in full.

11. Where a group of family or work together in solving the puzzle but one prize will be awarded in case the solution submitted is among the winners. Only one member of each family can, therefor, win a prize.

12. In considering the eligibility of a contestant for the increased cash prizes, a new subscriber will be considered one who was not receiving The Sentinel by carrier, by mail or through an agent on June 1, 1921. A renewal will be a yearly subscription from one who on June 1 was a subscriber.

FEAR THE LORD

I WILL teach you the good and the right way; only fear the Lord, and serve Him in truth with all your heart; for consider how great things He hath done for you.—1 Samuel 12: 23, 24.

Not Yet

DISPATCHES so far have failed to substantiate the startling report from Riga on Monday which declared Nikolai Lenine to have confessed the complete failure of communism and urged immediate return to unrestrained capitalism, with the recall of the democratic and other parties now in exile from Russia. Riga has been a sort of Finnish rumor-factory ever since the red revolution. Apparently it is mainly populated by propagandists of both red and white complexion, in desperate competition as to the amount and sensationalism of the "news" they can manufacture. This story was a fair sample, it seems, judging from the lack of corroboration of a yarn that, if true, would have set the newsmen of three continents feverishly to work amplifying and verifying the facts. And yet it was not inherently an impossible story. Capitalism in certain directions has already been recognized and welcomed back to Russia by the bolsheviki, and with this confession of communistic failure as a premise it is not hard to predict that eventually most of the bolshevist program will go by the boards. But that Lenine himself should have made the confession of failure and urged the rightabout was much harder to believe. One doubts that when the break comes Mr. Lenine will be caught in Russia. Only the continuation of communism and his hand-picked soviet makes Russia healthy for him. His life would not be worth a smell of vodka, one suspects, were he to rise up before his misled, starving and suffering people and announce that it was all an unfortunate mistake, and that he, Lenine, would now lead the people back to the new Promised Land--the one they left four years ago. No, after watching Lenine perform since the March revolution, one feels quite safe in predicting that when the time comes for another Moses to start Russia back-tracking to the fleshpots of capitalism Mr. Lenine will have delegated the job to someone else, and will be over the border en route to Switzerland before the legatee blows the first trumpet. Nikolai has a horror of blood-shed, if it is his own.

Common Sense

THE allied supreme council had a tough job laid in its lap by the Austrian government when that helpless and hopeless group refused any longer to try to keep the leaky ship of state afloat. The ship was bored so full of holes by the peace treaty that no amount of pumping could make headway against the water, and the Austrians informed the allies, in effect, that if they wanted her to keep afloat they could handle the problem themselves. After a very brief investigation of the size of the job the allies turned it over to the League of Nations—like so many other jobs in Europe that nobody else has courage to tackle, or that no one else can see any profit in. Now the financial committee of the League has reported. A dispatch says:

According to one of the members of the finance committee, the success of the proposed plan is contingent upon the waiving of liens upon Austria's national assets, now held by various governments. Only this course, it is said, can induce private capital to interest itself in Austrian investments.

In other words, the only thing that can be done to save Austria is to unravel the peace treaty and give her a chance. Economists and unprejudiced observers began telling that to the allies before the peace treaty was framed. The plight of Austria was accurately predicted in 1919, but the statesmen paid no attention. One wonders if the result of their refusal has been sufficiently obvious to convince them of the wisdom of following advice this time, as given by the economists of the League committee. And, incidentally, will the acute example of Austria carry to their minds the same concrete moral as to what is wrong with the rest of Europe and what must be done about it as it does to most other observers?

Your First White Ancestor

A UTAH court rules that the black-skinned Hindu belongs to the white race. Science backs the ruling.

The case may make you wonder if your ancestors came from India and whether they looked like the fellow you see in the movies who avenges the theft of the sacred jewel from the eye of the idol in the Bom-Wom temple.

Ethnologists, who trace the origin of peoples, are not certain about the exact location of the cradle of the white race.

Their latest theory is that your first white ancestors inhabited Africa, north of the Sudan, whence they migrated through Egypt into southern Russia and India.

One of their first sea voyages was to Japan, the scientists say. The Japanese originally were Aryan or white people, not Mongolian. Their saffron complexion is the result of cross-breeding their white ancestors (still found in the pure white state in the island of Yezo) with coffee-colored conquerors from the Malay Archipelago and China.

Interesting study—the origin of races—why one man is white and another black, yellow, red or brown.

We might know more about the prehistoric peoples and our own origin, had it not been for the burning of ancient libraries by conquering soldiers whose first act of vandalism was to destroy the records of the people they had subdued.

A particularly atrocious case was the burning of the Han-Lin College at Pekin by the allied soldiers during the Boxer uprising. With this college perished the priceless Yung-lo Ta Tien encyclopedia of 22,877 volumes, compiled 2300 years ago, each volume dealing with a separate subject and the whole including every bit of knowledge known to the ancient Chinese.

A grand institution, war!

Keeping Cool

IT isn't the weather so much as it is your state of mind that makes the heat bothersome. If you can keep your disposition cool your body will be comfortable. It isn't work, it's worry that kills—and that's as true in the summertime as at any other season. Note these suggestions as to how to keep cool, offered by Dr. G. C. Ruhland, Milwaukee health commissioner:

Keep your temper, let the other fellow sweat; keep calm and collected; stick to the shady side of the street; don't rush, fuss or worry; don't overeat; above all, don't start the day with a grouch.

Only two of the suggestions, you will note, refer to objective acts. The others are concerned with subjective things—the state of mind. Not what to do, but what to be counts in enjoying summer weather. You can be cool in a woolen shirt—if you keep your shirt on.

What's become of the old-fashioned mother who made a five-gallon crock of cookies every Saturday?

Coming and Going

BY DR. WILLIAM E. BARTON

THOSE interesting people, the astronomers, who work while we sleep and tell us in the morning what they have seen while we were dreaming, bring back to us astonishing information these days. If they keep it up, they may tempt some of the rest of us to sit up of nights and see whether they tell the truth.

Here is one thing they tell us now, that the spiral nebulae are moving away from us as fast as they can go, and the star clusters are coming toward us as fast they can come.

When we say that they are approaching "us" or receding from "us," we need to consider who is "us." "Us" is the Galactic System which has the Milky Way as its backbone. It is the Main street of that system of systems in which the Solar System occupies a small and inconspicuous back lot in an obscure alley.

The astronomers tell us that the spiral nebulae are found in one part of the sky, relative to the Milky Way, and the globular clusters are in another part. These globular clusters are compact, made up of super-suns, beside any one of which our sun is a mere marble. They are moving our way.

The spiral nebulae, which may be solar systems forming, or systems that have smashed up, are moving away from us. Two of them have been checked up, and their running time is now on record. One of them is making something better than 800 miles a second, and the other is saying goodby at the rate of about 1200 miles a second.

We had not supposed that any heavenly body was so eager to put distance between itself and us.

And now the astronomers have to discover, if they can, why one class of bodies is approaching this thickly settled part of the sky, and another class is removing.

Is our Milky Way so desirable a residential district that all the first families among the stars are looking this way and moving in, while we drive the celestial tramps out into the unoccupied areas.

Perhaps, if we knew the answer to this question, we should be able to discover one of the profound secrets of the universe.

As yet we are very ignorant.

CHICAGO—E. W. Majors, superintendent, and three other officials of the Chicago division of the aerial mail service, were suspended after investigation of charges made by former Pilot Christensen.

STAMP COLLECTING IS GOOD HOBBY AND IT IS EDUCATIONAL

Nearly everybody finds pleasure in making a collection whether it is of twigs, birds' eggs, sea shells, or what not. And more than that, many things of real value are to be learned in "riding the hobby".

Stamp collecting is one of the best hobbies that a boy or girl can take up. The fun comes in delving into the history behind every stamp, of classifying the stamps, and then "showing them off" to your friends.

Postage stamps are excellent reminders of historical events. Nearly every country occasionally issues a stamp to commemorate some important happening in its history.

The "stamp bug," by studying carefully the pictures on the "issues" in his collection, can tell you many things pertaining to the geography of the countries represented, that you may not have learned from your school books.

The pictures on the stamps are little stories of history and geography in themselves.

Easy to Start

It is not difficult to start a stamp collection. Advertisements appear in many magazines, in which dealers offer small packets of stamps at reasonable prices, prepared especially for beginners.

Specimens may be secured in other ways. If you have a business friend whose correspondence is not limited to this country, have him save for you all the foreign and peculiar stamps he gets. Old trunks of letters often contain many rare, valuable old issues. By trading with other stamp collectors in your neighborhood or school, you can add desirable specimens to your collection.

Purchase "Guide Book"

Keep your stamps in a neat blank book. Divide the pages of the album into small sections, one for a stamp. Allow a certain number of pages for one country, a certain number for another, etc.

Do not paste the stamps into the album. Use the gummed-paper "hinges" that may be purchased from stamp dealers.

To guide you in learning the history, value, markings, etc., of your stamps, a catalog is invaluable. For a reasonable and small sum of money you can buy one from a dealer. This guide book will also protect you from fraudulent dealers.

Dingbats

Just a Little Fishin'

Do any of you
Like to go fishing?
I sure like to Go up the creek
And throw in a
Line and sit down
To wait for something
To nibble. All at Once the float ducks.
And then I get all
Excited and pull
Up. Maybe I think
It's a whale, or Something, but
When it comes to the Surface—shucks, it's
Only a catfish three Inches long. But then,
I like to fish.

—Roy Fieldhouse.

Have you tried a dingbat yet?

DAILY HARDKNOT

In the following is hidden the pen name of a great American humorous writer. All of you probably have read at least one of his books:

Answer to yesterday's: "All's Well That Ends Well."

Doc Makes a Few Entries

One night a weary young doctor sat down at his desk and, as usual, began making notes in his diary concerning his patients. Here are a few:

The dentist—he may pull through.
The butcher—too much fat on bones.
The musician—I think he is tuning up.
The pugilist—striking improvement.
The painter—more bad signs.

Remember?

"SPEECHES" WITHOUT WORDS CREATE MUCH MERRIMENT IN CLASS

"Speechless speeches" were tried out in a public speaking class of West High School, Minneapolis, Minn., recently. Pantomime demonstrations were given, during which the performers, who stood at the front of the class room, did not utter a sound. It was all action. And actions speak louder than words, they say.

One boy imitated a piano player. Other motions were made quite successfully, being well understood by the watchers.

"These pantomimes," says the "West High Weekly," "were a source of much amusement for the class."

HOW DO YOU SAY IT?

When Noah Webster wrote his book he gave us certain authority. And that authority was to pronounce the words listed below (among many others) as follows:

Grimace—accent the second syllable and use the long "a."

Incognito—stress the second syllable, and use the short "i" in both places.

Clique—pronounce it just as you would if it were spelled "cleek." Long "e."

Implacable—the second syllable is accented, and the first "a" is long.

Condolence—accent the second syllable here, too.

Acumen—stress the second syllable and use the long "u."

"Babe" Ruth

He has written up some pointers for batters, that will be printed here tomorrow. "Babe" is an authority on batting if any one is, so you probably will get some good tips from his story.

What Shall I Write About?

This subject for a contribution is suggested especially for stamp collectors: "A Description of My Collection and How I Obtain My Specimens."

This is your newspaper. We will be glad to hear from you. Address your letters, contributions, news of your club, scout organization, or neighborhood, to the Editor of the boys and girls section, care of this newspaper.

LITTLE CHANCE FOR NEW DRY ENFORCEMENT BILL IS BELIEF AT CAPITOL

MADISON, Wis.—New prohibition enforcement legislation to replace the existing Mulberger law is practically out of the question in the present session, as a result of the veto by Governor Blaine of the Matheson bill, members of all factions said Tuesday night. The suggestion of the governor that a measure conforming to his suggestions be rushed through before adjournment will doubtless meet severe opposition.

There will be no serious attempt to over-ride the veto when it comes up for consideration on Thursday morning.

Blaine Drafting New Bill

With the Matheson bill then disposed of, it is expected that the administration will present a bill embodying the governor's recommendations.

Without waiting the action of the legislature on the Matheson Dry bill Governor Blaine is going ahead with the preparation of a new dry enforcement measure which embodies his ideas of a "sane and reasonable enforcement of the dry laws." It is said that the governor's bill will be much shorter than the present Matheson measure but that it will contain all of the essential meritorious features of that bill, minus "the red tape."

The veto of the Matheson bill came as a great surprise to many of the dry supporters, but the sentiment of the legislature seems to be swinging in line with the proposals made by Governor Blaine. It is not expected that the new measure will be ready for presentation before the end of the week. It will probably be offered in both houses.

There are some here who believe that an effort will be made to defeat the introduction of this bill on the ground that it is new legislation and too late to be considered at this time. The governor's supporters, however, will make a record on this measure and will fight for its separate introduction in each of the houses.

Assemblyman John L. Duhl, administration floor leader, said last night that a new dry measure in all likihood stands little chance of passage because of the united wet opposition of at least forty votes which would be mustered against it and because of the opposition of a number of drys who feel that the governor's veto of the Matheson bill was purely a political move.

The governor's course will not be obstructed by him, should a really effective enforcement proposal be presented to the legislature at this time, Assemblyman Matheson, author of the vetoed bill, said.

"I do not wish to be a dog in the manger in this matter," Mr. Matheson declared. "It is not my intention to be spiteful and oppose a move that would better the enforcement statutes. However, I would reserve the right to give careful and thorough consideration to the governor's bill before agreeing to support it."

While not speaking for the anti-saloon league, Mr. Matheson said that he did not believe it would stand against an effective prohibition measure, if Governor Blaine should have it introduced.

Blame the Governor

Many dry members of the lower house and of the senate declared that they believed they would oppose any new bill saying that they had thrashed over the prohibition matter once, and agreed on a bill which they knew to be better than the present law. The governor should take the responsibility for his step in refusing to sanction that measure, they said.

There is a possibility that the introduction of the new dry enforcement bill may prolong the session of the legislature for another week and will probably bring the adjournment of the legislature during the first week in July. In as much as no important financial measures have been reported out it is probable that the dry measure can be taken up and considered in advance of the finance committee bills.

WASHINGTON—The senate appropriations committee raised the total of the deficiency $53,000,000 over the $100,000,000 as passed in the house, the principal increase being fifty millions for the shipping board.

KALAMAZOO, Mich.—The favorable weather has glutted the Michigan strawberry market, prices dropping from $7 a crate to $4.50 with prospects of further declines.

6. Do not use compound words, nor any word formed by the combination of two or more complete English words, where each word in itself is an object.

7. The answer having the nearest correct list of names of visible objects and articles shown in the picture that begin with the letter "C" will be awarded first prize; the second nearest, second prize, etc.

The picture above contains a number of objects beginning with the letter "C". Just take a good look at the picture—there are all kinds of things that begin with the letter "C"—like cow, calf, cane, etc. Nothing is hidden; you don't have to turn the picture upside down. Fifteen Cash prizes will be awarded for the fifteen best lists submitted. The answer having the nearest correct list of names will be awarded first prize; the second nearest, second prize, etc.

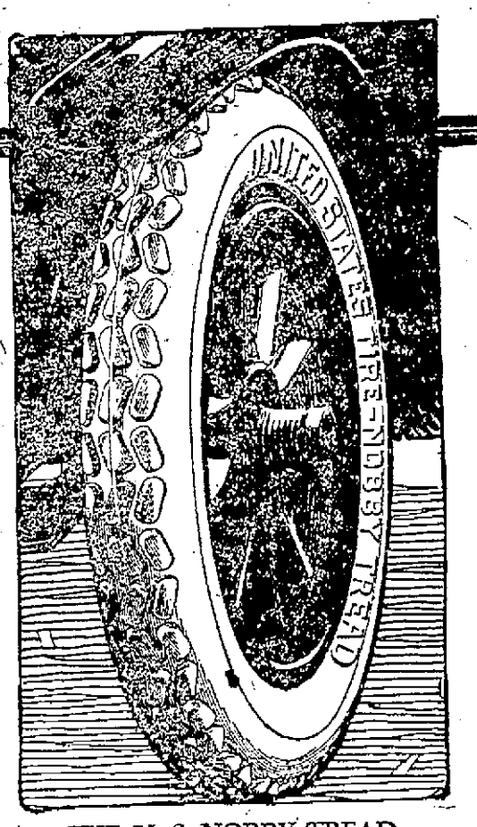
To the motorist who has quit guessing about tires—



THE U. S. NOBBY TREAD

Where the going is specially heavy with snow, mud or sand, in hilly country where maximum traction on the road is a factor, no other tire tread yet devised is quite so effective, or so wholly approved by motoring opinion, as the U. S. Nobby Tread.

Its very simplicity—two diagonal rows of oblong studs, interlocking in their grip on the road—is the result of all the years of U. S. Rubber experience with every type of road the world over.

ALONG about this time of year a man finds his motoring neighbors getting anxious about their tires. With folks expecting old tires to "pop" any minute, there comes the question of what kind of new ones to buy.

U. S. Tires are answering a lot of questions like this nowadays.

Those who started with quality first, and have never bought anything else but the quality standard tire.

Those who came to quality first only after dabbling with "bargains," "rebates," "job lot" and "surplus stock" tires.

Getting one hundred cents value on the dollar in tire buying is a straight-forward business proposition—not guess-work or a game of wits.

The most essential man for you to know today is the local U. S. Tire dealer who is concentrating on a full, completely sized line of U. S. Tires.

He gets his U. S. Tires straight from his neighboring U. S. Tire Factory Branch—one of 92 such Branches established and maintained all over the country by the U. S. Tire makers.

He is the man who can give you fresh, live tires—not stuff shipped to him from some point where it did not sell, but new tires of current production.

Giving the same quality, selection and price-advantage to the owner of the medium weight car as the big car owner gets. With equal service and buying opportunity whether he lives in the smaller localities or the greater centers of population.

"The most essential man for you to know today in the tire business is your local U. S. Tire Dealer."

BILL FOR JUNIOR COLLEGES UP FOR ACTION THURSDAY

MADISON, Wis.—Senator Nye's bill providing $50,000 for five junior colleges has weathered the finance committee with a single amendment, which would cause the law to go into effect in 1922 rather than in 1921.

Members of the assembly believe that the measure will not pass the lower house as easily as it did the senate. Several have expressed the view that normal schools should be converted into junior colleges, while others believe that the present mild request would eventually swell into vast sums if the system is initiated at this time.

The junior college bill has been put on the assembly calendar for third reading Thursday.

TROOPS NOT NEEDED TO REPORT TO BLAINE FROM GREEN BAY

Attempt to Settle Strike Difference Without Recourse to Military

PAPER MILLS IDLE WITH PICKETS STILL ON JOB

Governor Decides Not to Send State Guardsmen

MADISON, Wis.—State troops will not be sent to Green Bay to cope with the local situation which has grown out of a strike in three paper mills there, Governor Blaine announced Wednesday morning. He has sent a telegram to the sheriff of Brown county directing him to perform his duty in preserving order.

Reports of trouble have been found to be exaggerated by a representative of the governor, a member of the national guard, dispatched to the scene. He said that any serious developments had been overcome.

Following telephone conversation with the governor, the sheriff changed his decision and together with city officials agreed that appointment of sufficient deputies would relieve the necessity of militia. He has only twelve helpers to handle the strike situation.

Admit Office Force

GREEN BAY, Wis.—Officials of the Northern Paper Mill and their office force were permitted to get into the mill Wednesday morning by strike pickets who are still picketing in the vicinity of the mill, although quiet reigned throughout the night. The paper machines were shut off and no attempt was made to run them.

A conference Tuesday between mill and city officials was held and it is believed the possibility of settling the strike to avert the bringing of state troops to the strike zone was discussed.

ASSEMBLY VOTES TO RECONSIDER ACTION ON JOB INSURANCE

Huber Bill Made Special Order of Business for Thursday Morning

MADISON, Wis.—Unemployment insurance was revived as a subject of legislation before the present session Wednesday when the senate voted 15 to 14, to reconsider the vote by which it indefinitely postponed the Huber bill last Thursday. On motion of Senator Kuckuk, the measure was then laid over until 10 o'clock Thursday morning when it will be a special order of business.

Agreement reached among some of the senators with regard to amendments exempting seasonal employments from provisions of the unemployment prevention measure, resulted in the change in votes permitting reconsideration.

Senator Huber, speaking for his bill, which was drawn by Professor John R. Commons, noted economist of the University of Wisconsin, said that its provisions would tend to force employers to take steps to forestall unemployment and to better efficiency in industry.

LENROOT PROPOSES 15 MILLION CUT IN NAVY BUILDING FUND

Economy Drive of Badger Senator Loses by Vote of 35 to 20

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A new economy drive against the naval appropriation bill by Senator Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin, who proposed as settlement a $15,000,000 cut in the $90,000,000 provision for continuing the 1916 building program, failed in the senate Tuesday. The cut should be made, Lenroot said, by making the new appropriation of $15,000,000 for two new airplane carriers part of the general building fund.

Senator Poindexter, republican, Washington, said the $90,000,000 provided would curtail speed on the building problem to sixty per cent of normal on the six new battle cruisers, fifty per cent of normal on the six new battle cruisers, fifty per cent of normal on the scout cruisers and 25 per cent on the battleships.

The vote was 35 to 20, ten republicans and ten democrats voting to reduce the building fund and seven democrats voting with the majority of the republicans to stand by the committee regulations.

DAYLIGHT SAVING SCHEDULE IS IN EFFECT IN CITY

Practically all of La Crosse with the exception of the postoffice and railroad stations, is operating today on a daylight saving schedule.

The change from standard time to the daylight saving schedule was arranged last night or this morning without any great conflict or confusion and a large majority of the population went to work and ate meals Wednesday on the new schedule.

The postoffice is still operating on standard time because the mails arrive on this time, and deliveries about the city are on the old time.

The city hall and court house are operating under the daylight saving schedule.

ASSEMBLY ADVANCES PARTY CONVENTION BILL ON WEDNESDAY

Engross Ingalls Measure for Meeting of Delegates to Choose Primary Candidates

MEASURE WAS KILLED EARLIER IN SESSION

Administration Men Oppose Bill as "Unwieldy"

MADISON, Wis.—The Ingalls party convention bill calling or a gathering of delegates from every precinct in the state before primary election, to select a majority and minority party candidate as well as a majority and minority platform, was engrossed in the assembly Wednesday 44 to 43. The measure had previously been killed, but was revived on reconsideration.

Administration men in the lower house opposed reconsideration on the ground that the measure created an unwieldy machinery which would prevent a minority candidate from ever being elected to state office. They claimed that it opened the way to "boss" control of conventions saying that the national convention of the major parties would not compare with the Wisconsin party convention should the Ingalls bill be accepted.

Assemblyman Ingalls pointed out that the measure provided a means for election of a majority candidate, removing minority control which is afforded through the present primary without selection first of a definite candidate and platform.

Governor Blaine would veto the proposal should it pass both houses, according to general belief.

FOUR HUNDRED MILLION CUT FROM PAYROLL

average increase over the pay prior to federal control was 81 per cent.

The board estimates the present cut would mean "an average monthly salary of about $125 for all employes," but such an average means, of course, that while some workers would earn a sum considerably in excess of this, many thousands would fall far short of that figure.

Cites Trade Depression

At one point, in elucidating its decision, the board explains:

"There are certain facts and conditions, known to all, which can neither be disputed nor ignored. Whatever may be said as to the origin of contributing causes, there has been a marked and, to some extent, distressing and disastrous depression in business and industry, affecting the entire country and some lines of production most seriously.

"As a result heavy financial losses have been suffered and many hundreds of thousands thrown out of employment and deprived of all wages. This loss of purchasing power by them has in turn accelerated the general depression by reducing the demand for the products they would otherwise have purchased.

"While it has been argued that the fall in prices has not reached the consumer to any large extent, it has without question most disastrously reached and affected the producers, especially some lines of manufacture and the agricultural classes.

"It should be recognized by all that the problem before us is chiefly an economic one, and we are all confronted by adverse and troublesome conditions which every one must help to solve."

Total Saving $700,000,000

Some of the railway executives registered disappointment because the finding did not sponge off last year's increase entirely. But, it was pointed out, the carriers have said a saving of $300,000,000 a year might be accomplished by abrogation of the national working agreements, which is effective for July 1, and this, added to the potential $400,000,000 slash last night, totals $700,000,000 a year, which is not to be sneezed at in helping to put the transportation system back on its pins.

Reduced cost of living and reduced wages in other industries were the major factors on which the wage cuts were based by the board. The decision points out that the adjustment period has produced conditions "in whose burdens all have to share." It says the wage problem with which it dealt is an "economic one" and should not be regarded as "a struggle between capital and labor or the management and the employes."

H. C. L. Has Dropped, Claim

The board sets forth some of the conclusion on which it acted, as follows:

"It finds that, since the rendition of its decision No. 2 (last year's wage increase), there has been a decrease in the cost of living. What that decrease has been it is impossible to state with mathematical accuracy, or even what the general average for the United States has been up to and on any given date. The decreases vary greatly according to the locality and affect different persons in different degrees. In the cities the general decreases in some lines have been offset to some extent by the high rent. In some items the fall in prices has been great, in others much less.

"The board also finds that the scale of wages for similar work in other industries has in general been decreased, and the present tendency is downward.

"But the most unfortunate condition is that in many localities large numbers are out of employment on account of the prevailing depression, and hence without wages.

"In a decision of this character it is not practical to fix rates applying with exact ratio to each individual employe and each separate locality, for the reason that necessity compels the board to accept certain standardizations of pay for railroad employes. But these standards are now somewhat different in different regions, and so the decreases will have relatively the same general effect."

BOY DODGES ROD BY HIS INGENUITY, MOTHER LEARNS

Americanization work has its unexpected phases, according to Miss Lilly M. E. Borreson, city librarian at the main library. A foreign woman came to her seeking advice about her boy. She had never learned the American language and had been dependent upon her children, who had attended the public schools, to interpret for her.

She told Miss Borreson that her boy wouldn't behave. The case was considered judicially. The verdict was "spank him."

"Oh, but I can't," said the mother. "My boy said the American law and the American police don't allow mothers to spank their children."

BABY CLINIC AT ROCKLAND SCHOOL ON THURSDAY

Dr. Walter Jones will be in charge and will be assisted by Mrs. Mary J. Evans, Mrs. Eugene Hesselberg, Mrs. Gomer Roberts, Mrs. Eben Jones, and Mrs. Louis Mason.

Elsie Burkhardt, county nurse, today urged all mothers in the Rockland district to avail themselves of this opportunity to learn the state of health of their infants by bringing them to the clinic, which is the second of the series to be held throughout the county.

HARDING CONFERS WITH I. C. C. ON REVISING RATES

Meets With Members of Commerce Body to Discuss Proposed Reductions

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Downward revision of railroad rates, particularly of those on necessities, was discussed by President Harding Wednesday with members of the interstate commerce commission at an informal conference at the commission's headquarters. The president was understood to have been assured that the whole subject now was under review by the commission.

Mr. Harding inquired particularly about the prospect for modification of rates on fruits. The commission officials are understood to have told him that they were making considerable progress on a plan for obtaining voluntary reductions in some rates through concerted action by the carriers.

It was said that the general work of ironing out inequalities had gone much further than information hitherto given to the public had indicated. Details as to this, however, were not made public.

and their ashen faces bespoke gripping fear.

Men, women and children carried bundles of clothing on their heads and backs. The articles they saved were varied and in many cases would have been ludicrous but for the gravity of the situation. Here an old woman clung to a Bible; there a girl with disheveled hair carried a wholly white dog under her arm, and behind trotted a little darkey girl with a big wax doll.

In one case an aged negro woman supported an old man, wrapped about with quilts and blankets and apparently very sick. He was immediately placed in an automobile and hurried to a hospital.

But all those who came to convention hall were not non-combatants. Repeatedly grim faced men, heavily armed, whirled up at the big hall directly from the scene of fighting under the big hill on North Greenwood. With them, closely guarded, were negro prisoners captured with guns during the fray.

Negro domestics were taken from their quarters and moved to the hall park.

SCOTT BONE NAMED GOVERNOR OF ALASKA

SENATE O. K.'S BILL TO MAKE SCHOOL HEAD APPOINTIVE OFFICER

Constitutional Amendment Provides for Reorganization of Educational System

MADISON, Wis. — The senate Wednesday adopted the first of the committee on education and public welfare bills calling for constitutional amendment to permit reorganization of the educational system of the state. The proposal accepted by the upper house, if finally adopted by the next legislature and passed by the people, would permit the legislature to do away with the elective nature of the office of superintendent of public instruction.

Both C. P. Cary, present superintendent of public instruction, and E. A. Fitzpatrick, secretary of the state board of education, support the proposed constitutional amendment. They believe that the chief administrative officer of the schools should be appointed by a board of education, a stand upheld by the senate.

Badgers To Protest Umpire's Decision Which Resulted In Michigan Victory On Monday

MADISON, Wis.—Official protest against an umpire's decision which gave Michigan a victory over the Wisconsin nine in an eighteen inning game Monday, will be made by the University of Wisconsin athletic department, Coach Guy S. Lowman announced Wednesday.

Had the umpire refused to reverse his announced decision at request of the Michigan coach, the game would have been won by Wisconsin, 5 to 4, in nine innings. He first held that a batted ball knocked outside of the foul line into the crowd, recovered by the fielder and sent home in time to tag the player at the plate, was an out.

Coach Fisher of Michigan on this decision came out and insisted that a batted ball which leaves fair territory out of view of the official is automatically a home run. The umpire then changed his ruling, giving Michigan the run and tying the score in the ninth, according to the report of Coach Lowman.

The protest will be acted on by western conference authorities who meet Saturday.

HOLD-OUT SIGNS

CINCINNATI, Ohio.—Henry K. Groh, holdout captain and third baseman of the Cincinnati Nationals, signed his contract at the club terms Wednesday.

VIRGIL CAMPBELL WINS QUEEN CITY HILL CLIMB SUNDAY

Witnessed by a record crowd of spectators, Virgil Campbell of La Crosse won the Queen City motorcycle hill climb held at Rochester last Sunday shooting over the hill in 13 4-5 seconds, setting a new record for the stunt on that climb.

The event was declared to be the most successful ever staged at Rochester and was participated in by motorcyclists from Minneapolis, Rochester and many other cities in this section. In winning the climb, Campbell also took the large cup awarded to the rider making the largest score in three years.

Special traction devices are necessary equipment on the motorcycles making the trip because of the steep incline, but in spite of this extra equipment, several of the riders failed to go "over the top." Campbell drives a Harley-Davidson machine. Leo Kimball, Rochester, took second place with an Indian, and Leo Herrick, Rochester, won third with a Harley-Davidson. Oscar Becker, Minneapolis, finished in four position driving an Excelsior.

Thirty La Crosse motorcycle riders from this city, lead by Captain John Grabinskt, made the trip to Rochester to witness the event.

BRYAN TO ESTABLISH RESIDENCE IN FLORIDA

NEW YORK—William Jennings Bryan will vote in Florida in the future. While here Tuesday he announced that his actual residence in that state would become his legal residence. He was influenced in making the change, he said, by the state of Mrs. Bryan's health and in his new home expected to concern himself with economy in public affairs.

TILDEN AND JONES BEAT SPANISH TEAM

KING VIDOR CALLED "DICKENS OF SCREEN"

"Poor Relations," King Vidor's latest production is a delightful mingling of pathos, love and humor, which contrasts the sham culture of the so-called aristocracy with the "common" class.

The brilliant young author-director has earned for himself the title of "the Dickens of photo-drama" by his fidelity in the drawing of real human characters in this production.

Pa Perkins, the optimistic proprietor of the general store in the little country town; Ma Perkins, with heart as big as her cooking is good; Daisy Perkins, with head in the clouds of Romance looking for the approach of a prince or millionaire suitor; Dorothy Perkins, ambitious and pining for the culture of high society; Henry Hubbard the village swain, who falls in love with Dorothy and marries Daisy; all are familiar and old time home folks who enlist our sympathies.

There is a lot of homely humor, too, in the picture; and quaint philosophy that rings true. "Poor Relations" comes to the Majestic next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

TIP TOP VAUDEVILLE COMING TO THE MAJESTIC

Miss Pert Sue and Gust Kelton in "Out Bursts of song music and comedy will be the feature act at the Majestic tomorrow Friday and Saturday. It is one of vaudeville's most entertaining combinations of music and comedy. Miss Pert Kelton in addition to being an extremely good trombonist does some clever imitations of Charlie Chaplin and Frisco, the jazz dancer and closes with a medley on the drums and traps. Sue Kelton is a virtuoso on the cornet and proves an effective foil for Miss Pert's comedy. Mr. Kelton conducts in the orchestra pit and contributes a full share to the success of the offering. Howard Nichols America's most marvelous hoop roller a holder of the world's record, juggling seven hoops in the air at one time. Some expert manipulations of the diabolo is also displayed in a dexterous manner. The above is presented in addition to the regular photoplay program at the Majestic.

STORY OF NORTHLAND ADVENTURE COMING HERE

Few screen productions have offered photoplay lovers the remarkable Northland scenes which are the settings for the story related in James Oliver Curwood's "Isobel- or, The Trail's End," which is to be presented at the Rivoli theater for three days starting Thursday.

This production, adapted from Curwood's greatest novel, "Isobel," and starring House Peters and Jane Novak, has been heralded in all sections of the country as one of the most compelling love stories ever related on the screen.

The thrilling adventures in the frozen wastes "north of sixty" compose one of the most masterful chronicles of adventure and love ever presented the public.

House Peters has never had a role in which he appeared to better advantage. Jane Novak, in the sympathetic role of the wife who is loved by two men, and who loves both, has the most successful role of her career. This story is the most interesting offering of the year.

TOM MIX—CASINO

Mix's famous horse Tony has a rival in "The Road Demon," because Tom uses a racing car for many of the thrills and daredevil escapades. But Tony is there just the same, and will do his usual best to help Mix entertain. The big part of the story hinges on two big auto races. It is comedy, too, and of the liveliest sort. Claire Anderson is Mix's leading woman in "The Road Demon."

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG AND NEW MUSICAL SHOW AT RIVIERA TWO DAYS

Clara Kimball Young in "Hush" and the Jewell Golden "Jubilee Girls" in "At Saratoga," a new musical comedy, are on the screen and boards at the Riviera today and Thursday. "At Saratoga" is a racy little show; it's fast; it's funny; its music and songs are catchy and tuneful. Conrad Hipp and Max Golden shine as leading comedians. Lillian Bossent has several pleasing song numbers. The chorus appear in costumes never seen in any of the other Jewell-Golden plays.

Dramatic suspense, alluring romance and red-blooded action to set the pulses throbbing and tug at the heart strings are some of the promises made for "Hush," Clara Kimball Young's latest photo-drama.

"Hush" was written by Sada Cowan and is a fascinating story of American romance. Vera is the wife of Jack Stanford, an adoring lover who has not permitted the convention of matrimony to lessen his unbounded affection for her. On the night of their first wedding anniversary Vera seems troubled. Jack importunes her to tell him what it is, and imploringly assures her that no matter what might have happened before their marriage nothing could dampen his ardor. And then she confesses that there had been another man. "Anything but that I could forgive," he tells her. And from that moment on things occur which make this one of the most intensely dramatic and absorbing film stories ever produced.

SHIRLEY MASON—STRAND

Regardless of how firmly fixed in a man's make up may be an inherent desire to be scrupulously honest, there is hardly a man who, if it becomes necessary in order that those dear to him be rescued from starvation, would not set out to procure food in spite of every law. This situation is one of the big incidents that go to make up a screen story, known as "The Mother Heart," in which Shirley Mason, petite William Fox star, will be seen at the Strand today.

In "The Mother Heart" Miss Mason enacts the daughter of a man who stole in order that his family might live, and details the efforts of the girl to mother the little family, including a small baby—their mother having died of a broken heart at the time of the father's arrest. It is said to be a picture irresistibly sympathetic in quality, and of course develops a love romance incidentally.

LA CROSSE-CALIFORNIA GIRL TO DANCE AT RIVOLI

Miss Gladys Lawrence of La Crosse will present a solo dance, "The Fire Fly," at the Rivoli next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. In addition to Miss Lawrence's dance, the Rivoli will also present two high class acts of Orpheum vaudeville and feature pictures.

Miss Lawrence spent part of her early life in California. She is a very clever actress, taking part in a number of big productions while in the West. She will finish her dancing career in Los Angeles, under the supervision of Ruth St. Denis.

WOLF IS KILLED IN BANGOR WHILE ON A SHEEP RAID

Peter Severson Shoots Varmint Dead in Tracks as it is Charging Flock

For many, many moons a huge timber wolf stalked the town of Bangor. He grew large, fat nd sleek living on the choice sheep of the town. He seemed to bear a charmed life for no farmer ever got a shot at him.

But—

On May 25 this great big wolf strolled out of the woods near Peter Severson's farm. Gazed around the meadow, saw a flock of sheep grazing a short distance away. Spotting one particular sheep he made a dash from the woods to seize his prey. Crack! The old wolf had scarcely traveled 25 yards when he dropped dead in his tracks. Peter Severson had been "laying" for him and shot him dead. Several sheep had disappeared from the Severson flock and the farmer was on the trail of the varmint.

Tuesday Severson came to the county clerk's office to collect the $20 bounty of a mature wolf, $10 from the state and $10 from the county. It was one of the biggest wolf pelts brought to the county auditor's office in many months.

Gentlemen:—I recently completed the "Stenographic and Bookkeeping Commercial Course" given in your school and I am glad to say that I found everything to be exactly as represented.

I am now working as stenographer for Mr. Day—Production Manager at Brown, Blodgett and Sperry's. Though our work is concerned with the Harvey Blodgett Co., there are other departments that take care of Brown and Sperry's work. While the work is new to me I do not find it at all difficult after the thorough training received at your school. I find my work very interesting.

I have seen several of the "WBU" students in St. Paul who are holding good positions.

I found your "Proof" booklet very interesting and I sincerely hope you will send me more of them, as they keep one in touch with what the other students are doing.

Wishing you continued success, I am Sincerely,

COMEDY DRAMA HELD FAVORITE TYPE OF MOVIE IN LA CROSSE

Midwest Producing Company Head Studies Audiences to Decide on Type

La Crosse movie fans like comedy drama better than any other type of movie, according to G. E. Bowen, general manager of the Midwest Film Producing company, who has been studying La Crosse theater audiences for two weeks. The Midwest company, in co-operation with A. J. Cooper, president of the Cooper Amusement company, will produce a picture in La Crosse with an all-La Crosse cast. Scenes will be taken at two matinees at the Riviera theater, June 6-7, and the public will have an opportunity to see "how the movies are made."

"It has been a fixed habit of mine," said Mr. Bowen, "to make a careful study of the patrons of movie theaters for in that way only am I enabled to obtain the direct appeal of different types of production upon various audiences. It is for that reason that I have spent nearly two weeks in La Crosse visiting all the theaters in an effort to satisfy myself as to what type of story will most generally satisfy and please La Crosse patrons. As a result of my observations I am convinced that a majority of La Crosse people most truly appreciate the comedy drama with a story of heart appeal woven through the production.

"Having satisfied myself of this, I am now enabled to determine the kind of story I shall use in making the La Crosse production, for it is my method to make a production of the type that will please the most people. Then to so direct the cast that it endeavors to bring out the story, instead of using a story to conform to the cast.

"The determination of the cast will be completed this week so that next Sunday morning the contestants will be assembled at the Riviera theater and the actual cast be chosen by the judges, then Monday will see the real start of the picture. All the interior scenes will be taken at special matinees at the Riviera theater Monday and Tuesday, June 6 and 7, at 2:15 p. m., at which time the people of La Crosse will have an opportunity to actually witness real studio atmosphere, with complete properties and lighting effects."

CLOSE ROAD-HOUSES AT TEN IS OBJECT OF BENNETT BILL

MADISON, Wis.—Road-houses in Wisconsin open after ten o'clock at night will be considered disorderly and their proprietors subject to arrest and imprisonment, if the assembly concurs in the senate action in passing the Bennett bill Wednesday.

The measure is aimed at all road-houses in the state, with the direct purpose according to Senator Bennett, of driving them out of business unless they conform to rigid regulations. Much of the immorality among younger people is due to the laxity with which these houses are operated. Women's organizations are behind the proposal.

HOUSE COMMITTEE REPORTS BILL TO BAR SALE OF BEER

WASHINGTON.—The house judiciary committee agreed Wednesday to report out the Volstead bill, which would prohibit sale of beer on physician's prescription for use by the sick.

The Mount Cenis tunnel in Europe is eight miles long and cost $15,000,000.

MARKET LEADERS HEAVY

Shippings, Sugars, Chemicals and Rails Depressed; Other Stocks Firm

NEW YORK—Shippings, sugars and chemicals were heavy issues on the stock exchange Wednesday. Several of the minor rails also registered substantial losses, but coalers and Pacifics were fairly firm. Shorts were aided in their operations by price cutting in the motor and oil industries. Sears-Roebuck, American Woolen, National Enameling and United Drug represented the reactionary specialties. European oils, reversing their recent course, showed fair support. Brokers reported a brisk demand for call money at 7 per cent and exchange on London rose substantially over yesterday's final quotations.

The stock market was inclined to make further concessions to professional pressure at the opening of the session. Oils, motors, steels, coppers and tobaccos added to yesterday's reversals, but with a few unimportant exceptions losses were restricted to fractions. Rails made no appreciable response to the wage reduction announced by the United States railroad board. Before the end of the first half hour, however, the market became heavy, Crucible falling nearly three points and United States Rubber 1¼.

Crucible was under severe pressure later at an extreme decline of almost 4 points, but oils, motors and equipments hardened despite the 7½ per cent quotation for call money. The closing was irregular.

WHEAT ADVANCES

Lack of Selling Sends Prices up Rapidly

CHICAGO, Ill.—Wheat advanced readily in price Wednesday, influenced for the most part by absence of any aggressive selling. Recent demand from exporters both for new and old wheat had a deterrent effect on bears and so, too, did smallness of the domestic visible supply. Besides, crop reports remained inauspicious. Opening quotations, which varied from ½ to 1½c higher with July $1.29¾ to $1.30, were followed by a decided further upturn.

Subsequently steep advances were made, estimates that the winter crop would not exceed 500,000,000 bushels, being construed as decidedly favorable to the buying side. France and Germany and seaboard domestic millers were said to have purchased more or less. The close was strong, 8¾ to 8⅝c net higher at $1.37 to ¼ July.

Corn was firmer in sympathy with wheat. After opening ¼ to ⅝c higher, including July 65 to ½c, the market hardened still more.

Later the corn market developed additional strength owing to expected falling off in receipts and to prospective large shipments from Chicago to the east. Prices closed firm 1⅝c to 2⅛c net higher with July 66⅝ to ¾c.

Oats reflected the course of other cereals, starting ¼ to ⅜c up, July 41⅜c and later making a slight additional gain.

Higher hog values tended to lift provisions.

MINIMUM WAGE HEARING IS HELD BY STATE BOARD

MacWillie and Robb Principal Witnesses of Morning Before Commission

D. W. MacWillie, president of the Wisconsin Pearl Button company, asked the industrial commission of Wisconsin at a hearing in the court house here Wednesday morning to investigate the advisability of repealing the minimum wage law.

Mr. MacWillie contended that the workers would become proficient and productive workers much quicker if the minimum wage schedule was abolished.

J. G. Robb, president of the Badger Hosiery Mills, presented a lengthy computation comparing prices of various commodities with those charged in 1919, when the minimum wage was established at 22 cents per hour. Reductions of various articles of wearing apparel averaged 40 per cent.

Mr. Robb said that in La Crosse 95 per cent of the girls working in factories live at home, and prices charged at cafeterias and boarding houses would not apply in their cases as furnishing a basis for the establishment of a reasonable minimum wage.

Fred M. Wilcox, member of the industrial commission, is conducting the hearing. Representatives of various labor organizations the La Crosse County Community council, and many employers of labor are in attendance.

The state board is conducting hearings in various cities of the state to obtain data preliminary to deciding whether an increase in the minimum wage and a shortening of the hours of labor for women and children are warranted.

WOMEN THREATEN TO CARRY LEGISLATIVE FIGHT TO THE POLLS

Senators Accused of Having Broken Faith in Passage of Bird Substitute Bill

MADISON, Wis.—Without mincing words, the legislature was plainly informed by women's organizations Tuesday that the women intend to fight the issue out at the polls if laws they requested would not be acted upon favorably during this session.

A rebuke was delivered to members of the senate, who, they claimed, had been pledged to support a bill granting women equal rights, and who, they allege, broke their promise and voted for the Bird substitute cutting out the clause granting equality in making contracts. Twenty senators were accused of having broken faith.

The assembly was informed that the women expected it to return the bill to the upper house for concurrence with the contract clause restored.

A second bill which is likely to cause members of the lower house some solemn consideration, in view of the demands of women's organizations, is the judiciary committee bill specifically exempting women from jury duty, which comes up on Thursday.

The assembly has twice refused to specifically include women for jury service, on the ground no political slur was implied, and that it was not a privilege arising under the nineteenth amendment but a heavy obligation from which many men in different professions were excused.

Should the women insist on their right to serve on juries, an interesting contest is likely to develop in the assembly.

INVESTIGATE BOMB EXPLOSION ON SHIP WHICH KILLED FIVE

WASHINGTON.—War department officials were awaiting Wednesday a report from special investigators sent to the Aberdeen, Md., army proving grounds to ascertain the circumstances of the explosion there Tuesday of an aerial bomb which resulted in the death of five men and the serious injury of ten others.

Information received indicated that a bomb fell from a machine and was struck by the tail of the craft as it swung around, causing the explosion.

SPENT MILLION ON PEGGY IN 3 MONTHS IS CLAIM OF JOYCE

CHICAGO.—James Stanley Joyce, millionaire lumber king of Chicago and Clinton, Ia., filed his answer Tuesday in the Superior court to the petition of Margaret "Peggy" Hopkins Joyce asking for $10,000 a month temporary alimony and $100,000 for attorney's fees. The answer states that during the three months he lived with the pretty artist's model and actress, he spent $944,331.32 on her for wearing apparel, jewelry, automobiles, for their Miami residence and cash given her.

He declares the separation was caused by Peggy after he learned of her many affairs of the heart with men on two continents.

He is still in debt on her account, the answer says, to the extent of $453,985 to banks and jewelry houses in Paris, New York, Miami, and Chicago.

"TIZ" FOR SORE, TIRED FEET--AH!

"Tiz" is grand for aching, swollen tender, calloused feet or Corns

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, aching, tender, sweaty feet. No more soreness in corns, calouses, bunions.

No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief just use "Tiz." "Tiz" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "Tiz" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more agony from corns, callouses or bunions.

Get a box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Wear smaller shoes. Just once try "Tiz." Get a whole year's foot comfort for a few cents. Think of it.

"Hike" Over Trails Afoot Through GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

The notion of getting out into the Rocky Mountains appeals to you, of course. Glacier Park contains 1,500 square miles of the wonderful Montana rockies—peaks of magnificent architecture and of many colors too. And they're mountains of romance as well—the Blackfeet Indians having attended to that through the names they have given them and the legends they have woven about them.

You'd enjoy exploring a glacier—coasting and snow-balling on an icefield in midsummer is great fun.

You like to be out in the woods, too. Here are splendid forests of sweet-smelling pine.

You like to be about the water? Here are countless mountain streams all a-sparkle, and a-brim with Dolly Varden trout; also two-hundred-and-fifty mountain-hemmed, mirror-like lakes—and waterfalls that range from rapids to cataracts.

Fresh air! The mountain breezes are glorious.

Travel in Glacier—that's no end of fun. There are auto-stage and launch routes, miles and miles of skyland pony-trails and hiking paths.

And when your day of motoring or cruising or pony-backing or tramping is done, you'll find accommodations that rhyme with this Rockymountainland—mammoth mountain inns and "comfy" chalets or, you can "take your hotel with you and camp."

Glacier is the most talked-of place in America by out-of-doors people. When will you be ready to go? Let me know, so I can make your reservations and you'll be sure of space.
